Dear Commander Shepard:

I am most grateful for the President's offering me the use of his cabin cruiser and the Laurel area of Camp David in connection with my official duties.

Should the occasion arise, I understand arrangements will be handled through your office.

Sincerely,

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

26 May 1961

Dear Mr. Dulles:

The President has asked me to advise you that he would be pleased to have you use his cabin cruiser, the "Patrick J", and the Laurel area of his mountain retreat, Camp David, whenever they may be helpful to you in the performance of your office.

To make arrangements, please contact my office. The bill for costs incurred will be mailed to your office after each occasion.

Very respectfully,

TAZEWELL T. SHEPARD, JR.
Commander, U. S. Navy
Naval Aide to the President

The Honorable Allen Dulles
Director, Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C.
